School Team Time Questions and Feedback January 15, 2013

What steps have you taken in your building PLCs to work toward the goals outlined this timeline?
Where has your team been successful in working toward these goals? What led you to this success?
Where has your team encountered obstacles in working toward these goals? What strategies have you tried to overcome these obstacles?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?
What are your next steps to meet the goals in this timeline?

Do we need to participate in any collective learning? If so, what?
Do we need more time with department coordinators? What would this look like? What would the goal(s) be?
Do we need cross-district time for individual courses to work on common elements of their curriculum maps to be ready to teach to new standards in the fall? If so, which courses?
What would this look like? What would the goals be?
white would this look like. White would the golds be.
What should building PLC meetings look like between now and June 2013? How will you make this happen? What support do you need?
what should balaning 126 meetings foot the between how and june 2015. 110 with you make this happen. What support do you need.